

INTERTECH

A R C H I T E C T U R A L I N T E R I O R S , I N C .

Central Arizona Project

Intertech worked in coordination with an electronics firm who were setting up the operations center of the Central Arizona Project. Intertech created this iconographic map to interface with the electronics system in order to make the management of water flow visually understandable. The 24hr manned station in the nerve center for the water flowing through the central region of the state.

