DIRTY DAWGS TUCSON, ARIZONA

New concept in Tucson - a "do it yourself" dog wash. The owner's passion for animals shows through in the whimsical design of the space. While the finishes are simple, pet friendly and easy to clean, a cheerful color scheme carries a playful energy throughout. The functional layout of the equipment including wash tubs with hand held sprayers and blow drier stations makes the grooming of even the furriest creatures a breeze. The collaboration between owner and designer proved to be a success in providing a setting for the bonding experience between owner and his best friend.
